A MEMBER OF

THE LEADING HOTELS
OF THE WORLD

The Drisco Hotel offers a distinct and unique experience designated to please the most savvy and distinguished travelers and patrons. This Urban Boutique 42 rooms property features a contemporary homage to the original 1866 oriental grandeur along with typical Templers' decor elements and murals. Guests will enjoy personalized excellent service, respectful recognition, sincere attention, and true sense of hospitality. The property is located in a picturesque residential and rather calm street permitting a restful and relaxing stay, still just around the corner from all the action.

HISTORY

HISTORY

The Drisco Hotel established in 1866 by the Drisco Brothers, who came from Maine USA to establish a luxury hotel in Israel, was the first hotel outside the walls of old Jaffa, (now Tel-Aviv).

Originally named The Jerusalem Hotel, it operated from 1866-1940, and became known as one of the most prestigious hotels in the region. Notable guests like Thomas Cook and Mark Twain visited the hotel.

In 2006, the building began a lengthy reconstruction project, focusing on the restoration and preservation of its original architecture, the storytelling wall murals, and its historic style.

The Drisco hotel is comprised of two perfectly renovated buildings: the historic Hardegg Jerusalem Hotel and the adjacent Norton House (now Villa Drisco).

HISTORY

HISTORY

The Historic Property will re-open as The Drisco Tel-Aviv in spring 2018. Revitalizing a significant landmark to regain its place as one of Israel's greatest hotel, while bringing back to life an important part of Tel-Aviv's History.

Located at the hotel's Lavish lobby, it is the heart and pulse of the hotel. A great space for lounging, having a business meeting, enjoy some people watching, mingle with the city's creative circle, getting to know other travelers, have an afternoon tea, or a pre or post dinner drink. The inspiring and animated Drisco bar serves a delightful collection of gastronomic bites, innovative and classic cocktail, premium drinks & wines, and a gourmet selection of teas.

THE ZADA RESTAURANT

19 century Jaffa was ruled by the Ottoman Empire, in that spirit The Zada restaurant cooks up a contemporary Ottoman culinary experience.

Chef Shahar Bitton draws his inspiration from traditional special meals and best dishes reserved for the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire only, reinterpreting the classic dishes and utilizing local ingredients.

Zada, named after the master of spirits, offers a menu based on fresh fish and seafood, selected meats, and local vegetables. The Zada signature dish is the Sultan's favorite, an assortment of stuffed vegetables.

A gourmet selection of Kebab dishes, and pastries from the orient, regal dishes served on authentic ceramic plates, and a unique ambiance of opulence will bring to life those royal feasts.
